~ Short History of Slash ~

In 1729 the vestry of St. Paul’s Parish of Hanover County authorized the construction of the Slash Church building. A site of three acres, located on a nice hill with a number of trees and a supply of spring water, was selected and construction started. The plans called for a building “60 feet in length, 26 feet in breadth and 16 feet in height, in the body from the floor of the ally to the ceiling.” The Rev. Patrick Henry, uncle of the famous patriot, served as rector from 1737 until 1777. After the Revolutionary War and the break with the Church of England, it became the Protestant Episcopal Church. Among the historical worshippers at Slash were Dolley Madison, Patrick Henry and Henry Clay. In 1842 the Disciples of Christ became the owner of the Slash Church building. In May 1862, the sanctuary and grounds became headquarters and hospital for the Battle of Slash Church also known as the Battle of Hanover Courthouse. Built three years before the birth of George Washington, Slash is the oldest church building in Hanover County and the oldest wooden church building in Virginia.

Prelude

Welcome and Announcements Judy Pierce

*Hymns “Stand in Your Love”
“Whom Shall I Fear (God of Angel Armies)”

*Call to Worship (inspired by Luke 16:1-8)
One: The systems of this world tell us to hoard and protect our wealth.
Many: But Jesus invites us into a deeper wisdom.
One: We are called to loosen our grip on the treasures that fade away.
Many: And invest our lives in things that last forever.
One: Let us set aside the idols of greed and self-preservation.
Many: Let us use what we have to lift up our neighbors.
One: Come, let us learn the shrewd and generous ways of the Kingdom.
Many: We come to worship the God of true justice and grace.

*Opening Prayer

*The Lord’s Prayer (Unison)
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever. Amen.
